In response to the Office Action with Restriction and Election of Species Requirements,

Furthermore, at pages 2 - 4 the Examiner further explained the Examiner's view that the application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention, particularly (A) one type of heat insulating fine particle (citing claim 15) and (B) one inert substance (including citing claim 13). species. In the final full paragraph at page 3, the Examiner recognizes that additional species will be entitled to consideration upon the allowance of a generic claim.

In response, with respect to (A) one type of heating insulating fine particle, Applicant elects an indium tin oxide (ITO) (see claim 15), and with respect to (B), one inert substance, Applicant elects an amorphous indium oxide (see claim 13). Claims readable on the elected species are believed to be claims 1 - 5 and 12 - 19.

In response to the Examiner's further election of species requirements at page 4 of the Office Action Applicant elects species as follows:
